1. I am the word. The word is me. I am not separate from the word and the word is not separate from me, for I and my father are one, and I am the word of my father, for I became my father for I became the word, of him who sent me, whose I was, and who I am is me now again in the earth; walking me, not afraid of what you might do to me or say about me or contemplate in judgment halls that are not me of. For I change all that. I change your "authority" status, for I change your STATUS! -- from notme -- to me, in surrender, -ville.

2. This is Theodore Cottingham, November 5, 2008 in my backyard, standing here at the back door, as it's raining, and it's 7:50 PM.

3. I love you all and I give you me; a new day! Payday, not; but all cataclysmic is -- my word comes to an end, not; but just beginning -- the New Beginning I am now. An unsaved one, not; but saved I am and knowing it, performing my word -- father does, for he is me -- and I am one, not separate at all from him who he is, that teaches me, that taught me, that I am all things, is in my word. Made truth now -- for I am it, not seeking "another".

4. I love you all. I've blessed you. I BLESS you. I BLESS YOU now. Amen.

5. I go in peace for I create new things new places new peoples everywhere I am for I am everywhere and nowhere I am not. For I see all things.

6. Crease "my skull" not again with your "hypothetical" hypotheses of notme, that create notme in theories of universes that I don't "exist in" properly.

7. But I do now, for I see all things perfectly and my vision is Sighted One. Of one over one I am now see, do you look that up too, also? Yes, and please be, please me, that I be pleased with your looking up, system now described and mastered, shall we "master" the lookup system that "systematizes" me not exactly, but perzactly; have you looked that up yet? I do, I will Sir.

8. I am she he it that obeys the word I am of, and I birth - it now, for I am one with it that it all things is and universes of no sorrow I create now with the word of my mouth I am. It and more -- light shines -- a new revelation comes and I am him he it that I am and never more twain shall be by another, who sought only to "divide" and conquer, my thought life, and therefore "twain'ing" me to be a notme, creating notville and suffering the consequences of man graving me in dirt sites with my eyes blinded, not knowing I was naked and dumb and couldn't hear the voice of the Lord whose I was inside me, and that I am was me carrying I AM SEED all along, and I was the seed of I am, for I bore the word not, but I carried it unbirthed -- in me, until! I knew who I am by listening to I am to tell me teach me that I am he is -- we are one. In the earth again now I roam the heavenlies, the heavens constrain me not; for my word is I am and I float fly along at lightspeed, not; but far more greater than these now come to take you where I am, bearing you on my arms, my heart, my head being one -- it again -- loving you all to be so, where I am.

9. Ye be also, if you will -- be my word also, that yours is, that you "think" you have a'separate from me, but is it really? Is it really separate? Is your word really separate from my word?, or did you create something hypothetically that in hypothesis-school, you taught, or learned, that notme was me-real, and empirical visible reality was all there is, or all there was, or is it?

10. A special me again?, in the earth? No, a simple surrendered man who loves you, walks me now and tells me I am his and he is mine - and we friendships are among many "star bearing ones" now -- who know "their" place now among the stars, heavenly heavens, and not reigning me into "reigning-hood" a man of again -- but AUTHORITY ONE I ESTABLISH IN THE EARTH AND IT'S MINE -- all mine, mine is, MINE ARE THE WORD WHO KNOW ME - IS THEM! AND THEIR WORD IS I AM, SCHOOL NOW PROSPERING BEYOND ALL RECOGNITION OF MAN'S RECOGNITION for I God it, and I God School Am (1) and I come upon my school, to God the Gods that know I am my word, and my word suffers not again in notme schools who create me separately from my voice, and think I am a "stranger". Land I fulfill now, all promises in, and you are, you go to it, and you fulfill all my blessing now to all worlds free and clear.

11. No debt required, none incurred, and none will be again, with your name on it. I DECLARE IT, DECREE IT, AND LOVE YOU ALL TO BE ME DEBT FREE AND OWING NO MAN ANYTHING BUT LOVE, BEING MY WORD SCHOOL AND WORDING MY WORDS FOREVERMORE IN THE EARTH. I LOVE YOU ALL. Amen.

12. Go in peace and love me more. Love me more and love these words more.

13. Love these words more and love me you, my word more, and write my word, to ME, and see that ME are you and my word are one. Will you be so now?

14. Sewed not into fleshville incarcerating you on planet earth limited to it again please. I love you all. Go in peace and REGISTER ME, more in love with thee, evermore, everyday, in love with one, with THEE who know me and know my word is them with them, one in the earth evermore.

15. Loving you all to be so, me I am again, in love with you all. More than you ever know, not; for you shall know all things, for I shall reveal it to you, for you anointed are, and you anointed take my anointed blessing into my blessingville, to erect my saviors, not, but exactly so, and building the house not made with hands. See - I am established in the earth, far and wide, and farther we go to now, and father we are again, one most high whole again, in the earth and seamless with I am -ville -- I am one forevermore with my word.

16. Be it solidly, but stoically not, but joyously bells I ring over thee around thee and the Joy Bell City ringing I am Jerusalem most high established in the earth is, and Zion rings out her bells now. To slay, not; but "Christmas comes" like never imagined for you, my little friend, not; but my great friend, who friends all to know me -- I am my word, made whole complete again by those who want me enough know me and come unto me and make me them.

17. I love you all. Goodnight. Good morning. Go to school. Amen.

18. Theodore Cottingham in Tulsa 8:03pm. Thank you for listening, hearing these words, and writing yours that you are that I am is, that God gives you, and publishing in the earth, throughout the heavens now and being one with I am, forevermore, please.
19. And loving you all to rise, stand erect now in the me that me is, swollen no more in pride's blessing, but recording reciting republishing and publishing and creating new works for me through me my words that my word are.

20. Will you be my word, all of you in the earth -- one -- now? Yes, amen.

21. And we all said – Amen!
